

Our Lady of Lourdes Parish

24th Sunday Year B

12th September 2021

From Monday 9th August, the Scottish Government have removed social distancing guidelines allowing us to gather again without restrictions on numbers. Face coverings, sanitising and contact tracing remain in place. For weekday Masses, there is no need to book. However, it would be a huge help if you are able to book online for Sunday Masses (quite simply to save our volunteers taking everyone's details as you arrive). Telephone bookings will no longer be taken. Thank you for your assistance and understanding.

We remember all those who are sick,
We remember those who have died recently:
Frank Cairns; Anne Marie Murphy; Irene Armstrong; Betty Sermanni;
And the month's mind of: Archbishop Philip
And those whose anniversaries occur at this time:
Mary MacLean; Flora Hay; Winnie Cleary

If you would like to have an intimation included in this short weekly newsletter, please email the details to ollourdes@rcag.org.uk by Thursday.

Today's readings:
Isaiah 50:5-9
I offered my back to those who struck me
Response to the psalm: I will walk in the presence of the Lord in the land of the living
James 2: 14-18
If good works do not go with faith, it is quite dead
Mark 8: 27-35
You are the Christ. The Son of man is destined to suffer grievously

Please keep in your prayers our children in Primary 5 who, this weekend and next, receive Jesus for the first time in Holy Communion. Also for children in S1 who will be Confirmed on 23rd September, having missed out in June of this year due to self-isolation. We look forward to welcoming our young people as they continue to become full members of the Church.

Question of the week:
Adults: Why should faith always lead to good works?
Children: What good work can I do to show my faith?
