

Season of Lent: Ash Wednesday falls on 2nd March this year. Masses will be celebrated at 10 a.m. and 7 p.m. with the sprinkling of ashes. During Lent, we will have opportunities prayer and reflection including reflection evenings towards the Synod (Tuesdays); Stations of the Cross and other opportunities. Fuller details will be published when the time comes. Please take home today the SCIAF packs for Lent.

There will be no bulletin published for the next two weeks as Fr. David takes a break from the parish. He will be away from Tuesday until 1st March (inclusive).

Since we have Spring within sight, we will be having a Gardening talk and demonstration from Norma Pinkerton of WEGGA (West End Growing Grounds Assoc, Paisley). We invite anyone from the Parish who'd like to join us to come along for what should be a very interesting evening. Tea provided.

The bishop of Galloway, Bishop William Nolan, has been appointed by Pope Francis as Archbishop of Glasgow. A priest of Motherwell diocese, his last parish was Our Lady of Lourdes, East Kilbride, before becoming a bishop seven years ago. He will be installed as Archbishop on Saturday 26th February. Please pray for our Archbishop elect!

Flourish is available today (free) and some copies of the new magazine (The Scottish Catholic) are also available (£2). Both in the porch.

Question of the week:

Adults: In what way are you serving the poor, as Jesus did?

Children: When have you helped bring God's love to someone who was sad, or hungry, or whom others made fun of?
