

Our Lady of Lourdes Parish

25th Sunday Year B

19th September 2021

From Monday 9th August, the Scottish Government have removed social distancing guidelines allowing us to gather again without restrictions on numbers. Face coverings, sanitising and contact tracing remain in place. For weekday Masses, there is no need to book. However, it would be a huge help if you are able to book online for Sunday Masses (quite simply to save our volunteers taking everyone's details as you arrive). Telephone bookings will no longer be taken. Thank you for your assistance and understanding.

We remember all those who are sick,
We remember those who have died recently:
Frank Cairns; Anne Marie Murphy; Rose Coll;
And the month's mind of: Thomas Gallaher;
And those whose anniversaries occur at this time:
Vincent Scott; Mary & James Polding; Craig Spence;
Shonagh Malley; Antony Malley; Michael Rafferty;
Jackie Flaherty;

If you would like to have an intimation included in this short weekly newsletter, please email the details to ollourdes@rcag.org.uk by Thursday.

Today's readings:
Wisdom 2: 12. 17-20
Let us condemn him to a shameful death
Response to the psalm: The Lord upholds my life
James 3: 16-4:3
Peacemakers, when they work for peace, sow the seeds which will bear fruit in holiness
Mark 9: 30-37
The Son of Man will be delivered into the hands of men. If anyone wants to be first, he must make himself servant of all.

Congratulations to our children in Primary 5 who have received Jesus in First Holy Communion. Thanks to their teachers who prepared them too! Please pray for children in S1 who will be Confirmed on Thursday, having missed out in June of this year due to self-isolation. We look forward to welcoming our young people as they continue to become full members of the Church.

Question of the week:
Adults: What proof is there in the world that people don't accept Jesus' teaching on power and ambition?

Children: Why is the wanting the things that belong to others wrong?
