

From Monday 9th August, the Scottish Government have removed social distancing guidelines allowing us to gather again without restrictions on numbers. Face coverings, sanitising and contact tracing remain in place. For weekday Masses, there is no need to book. However, it would be a huge help if you are able to book online for Sunday Masses (quite simply to save our volunteers taking everyone's details as you arrive). Telephone bookings will no longer be taken. Thank you for your assistance and understanding.

We remember all those who are sick,

We remember those who have died recently:

Margaret McLean; Mary McGarry; Tom Gallaher

And the month's mind of: Isabella Flannery

And those whose anniversaries occur at this time:

Neal Diamond; William Mair; Jim Howat; Frank Adamson

If you would like to have an intimation included in this short weekly newsletter, please email the details to ollourdes@rcag.org.uk by Thursday.

21st Sunday Year B

22nd August 2021

Today's readings:

Joshua 24: 1-2. 15-18

We will serve the Lord, for he is our God

Response to the psalm: Taste and see that the Lord is good

Ephesians 5: 21-32

This mystery has many implications for Christ and his Church.

John 6: 60-69

Who shall we go to? You have the message of eternal life

Information has been sent to parents with children in Primary 5 regarding the celebration of First Holy Communion which will take place in September. Please keep our young people in your prayer at this time. Information will also go to parents with children in S1 who missed the Sacrament of Confirmation in June. This will be posted directly this week.

Question of the week:

Adults: How does the love between a husband and wife help me understand Christ's relationship to his Church?

Children: What can I do for my family to show them Jesus' love?
