

With the current rapid spread of the Omicron variant, the Bishops have repealed their call to return to the obligation of Sunday Mass. Please do come when you're able or join us online, if you can! We will return to a normal way of life eventually (and hopefully sooner, rather than later). In the meantime, let's recognise that God is with us, Emmanuel! Stay safe.

We remember all those who are sick,

We remember those who have died recently:

Jim Oakley; Marie Frost; Thomas McGourlick; Mrs. McSweeney;
Rena Mulligan; James McBride; Chrissie MacIntyre; Gavin Boyle;

And the month's mind of:

And those whose anniversaries occur at this time:

John McEnaney; Billy Ryan; Mae Murphy;

If you would like to have an intimation included in this short weekly newsletter, please email the details to ollourdes@rcag.org.uk by Thursday.

Happy Christmas:

For the second year in a row, our celebrations are a bit different. Our thoughts and prayers are with all those who are alone, grieving, self isolating, sick. Christ is born for us and his love for us is the light which has come into the world. Many thanks to all who are helping us to celebrate these beautiful feasts.

Question of the week:

Adults: What does your family do to honour and respect its older members?

Children: Why did Jesus leave the temple? How can Jesus be an example for you?
