

Our Lady of Lourdes Parish

7th Sunday of Easter

29th May 2022

On Pentecost Sunday, the Archbishop will celebrate Mass with those newly received into the Church at 3 p.m. in St. Andrew's Cathedral. On Sunday 19th June, the Archbishop will celebrate a sung evening prayer at 7 p.m. at which the Archdiocesan Synod report will be presented to him. All are welcome at both of these events!

There is a second collection today for Communications Sunday which supports the media offices of the Church in Scotland. Next Sunday's second collection is for the Day for Life which supports the Bishops' Pro Life causes. Thanks, as always, for your generosity!

We remember all those who are sick, B Cameron; Teresa Gray

We remember those who have died recently:

Margaret Bolt; Marie Rogers; Lilly McGunnigle; Marie Docherty; Michael Keenan; Robert Steel; Mary Maclsaac;

And the month's mind of:

The Sacrament of Reconciliation remains available to you during this time. To arrange a time for this, contact Fr. David at the parish house where we can celebrate the Sacrament at the front door with suitable privacy and social distancing.

Today's readings:

Acts 7: 55-60

I can see the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God

Response to the psalm: The Lord is king, most high above all the earth.

Apocalypse 22:12-14.16-17.20

Come, Lord Jesus.

John 17: 20-26

May they be completely one.

Pope Francis will pray the Rosary from St. Mary Major's Basilica on Tuesday at 5 p.m. for peace in the world, particularly in Ukraine. We will join in this effort with Rosary in the church at the same time. All welcome to join in (on Facebook too).

Question of the week:

Adults: Who in your family has the gift of wisdom? How does he or she use this gift?

Children: Who is the wisest person you know? What has he or she taught you?
