

With the current rapid spread of the Omicron variant, the Bishops have repealed their call to return to the obligation of Sunday Mass. Please do come when you're able or join us online, if you can! We will return to a normal way of life eventually (and hopefully sooner, rather than later). In the meantime, let's recognise that God is with us, Emmanuel! Stay safe.

We remember all those who are sick,

We remember those who have died recently:

Tommy Ruth; George Smith; Robert Dearie; John Lauter;

And the month's mind of:

And those whose anniversaries occur at this time:

Bill Simpson; Alex Doherty; Jane Rogan; Michael Reilly;

If you would like to have an intimation included in this short weekly newsletter, please email the details to ollourdes@rcag.org.uk by Thursday.

Welcome to Our Lady of Lourdes Parish

The week ahead:

Sunday Masses:

Vigil Mass: Saturday 5.30 p.m. (not 1st Jan)

Sunday 9.30, 11.30 (live streamed) & 6 p.m.

Weekdays (live streaming continues this week):

Solemnity of the Epiphany

2nd January 2022

Today's readings:

Isaiah 60: 1-6

Above you the glory of the Lord appears

Response to the psalm: All nations shall fall prostrate before you, O Lord

Ephesians 3: 2-3a. 5-6

This mystery has now been revealed: it means that pagans now share the same inheritance

Matthew 2: 1-12

We came from the east to do the king homage

Happy New Year:

As another year begins, we look forward in hope to things getting better, although we do so with gratitude for all that our faith affords us: filling us with light and the generosity of God. We often say that 'there are people worse off than ourselves'. This is true! Let's allow our gratitude to God shine out in our lives for the goodness of God!

Question of the week:

Adults: When have you been jealous or fearful of another person? When are such feelings harmful?

Children: When have you been jealous because something good happened to another person instead of you? What is the problem with feeling that way?
